Author checklist

◆ Manuscript Form ◆

☐ 1. Has the manuscript been written in 10-pitch font and double space on A4 paper, using Hangul Word or MS Word?
☐ 2. Has the manuscript been written in order of title page, abstract, text and references, and have tables and figures been inserted in order of citation in the text?
☐ 3. Have academic terms been used according to the newest medical glossary published by the Korean Medical Association (KMA)?

◆ Title paper ◆

☐ 4. Has the title page specified whether the manuscript is an original article, a case report, a review article, an editorial or a communication?

◆ English Abstract ◆

☐ 5. Has the English abstract been written within 300 words?
☐ 6. If the study is an original article, has it been divided into purpose, methods, results and conclusion and has each of them been begun in a new line?
☐ 7. Key words: Have 3-5 words been written in English and Korean at the bottom of the English abstract, and have they used the terms approved in the Index Medicus?

◆ Text ◆

☐ 8. If the article is written in Korean, have all of terms been written in Korean as far as they can be written in Korean?
☐ 9. Have cited references been marked with superscripts in order of citation?

◆ References ◆

☐ 10. Have references been cited without exception and listed in order of citation in the text?
☐ 11. Have all the references, including Korean-language and any other language materials, been written in English?
☐ 12. If the study is an original article, a case report or a review article, has the number of references been limited to 30, 15 or 100, respectively?
☐ 13. Have the names of academic journals used the words and abbreviations approved in the Index Medicus?
☐ 14. Have all the references been listed according to the introductions to authors?
☐ 15. Has this study cited one or more papers published in Journal of Clinical Nutrition? (Recommendation)
Tables and Figures

* In case of N/A, enter Yes

☐ 16. Have tables and figures used English language and Arabic numerals and marked with numbers in order of citation in the text? Have tables been added to the end of the text and figures been submitted as attached files?

☐ 17. Have the titles and descriptions of tables been written in English? Have abbreviations been explained at the bottom and symbols been used in superscript in order of a,b,c,...?

☐ 18. If a figure is a photograph, has it used 3 million or more pixels and 2 megabyte or less file with the form of ppt, jpg and gif?

☐ 19. Have figures been marked with numbers at the end of the text, and have their titles and descriptions written in the forms of clause and complete sentence?

☐ 20. Are line drawings originals? If any line drawing is cited from another study, has the consent of its author been obtained?